BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The work of missions within the bounds of the Conference has received the careful consideration of the Board of Missions. During the year, these charges have been served by the best men who could be secured for the places. The reports from many of these charges show a healthy condition and growth. A number of these give good promise of soon being in a condition to sustain themselves. The collection for this branch of our work has been in advance of last year, but still the demands are not met. The Presiding Elders turn sadly away, from the lack of funds, and feel that the work cannot be developed as it should be.

The Board has heard with pleasure the reports from our General Secretaries, telling of the increased collections for Foreign Missions.

The opportunity for enlarged work is now upon us, and we are face to face with the greatest opportunity of modern times, to extend the Kingdom of our Lord into the regions beyond. Our preachers are urged to preach more on missions, and let our people know what we are doing in other lands, and urge upon them to increase their contributions to this great cause, impressing upon them that it is as much the duty of a Methodist to support the cause of missions as it is to support the ministry.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension beg leave to report:

They have received 17 applications for aid, amounting to $2,075.

Not being able to grant in full these requests, yet we have been enabled to give substantial aid to 15 of these applications. Two being refused on account of seemingly imperfect titles.

We congratulate the Conference on the marked increase in amounts received from the many charges. With comparatively few exceptions the collections are spread over the entire ground, showing that church extension is growing among our preachers and laymen.

We commend to your care and attention The Woman's Home Mission Society. These ladies are endeavoring to put a parsonage on every charge, which should appeal to every member of the Conference.

We earnestly beg our ministers to assist the District Secretaries in their work.

Attached to this report is the address of the District Secretaries and the Conference officers.

The Conference has already adopted resolutions in regard to the death of Brother I. D. Mason, our Treasurer, yet we cannot close this report without adding our words of grief to those already expressed. Brother Mason was for 12 years the Treasurer of this Board. Always at his post, doing the duty assigned him with a care and promptness that had ever been his, in his own private business. And in the distribution of the funds no one was more careful than he in seeing that these funds should best subserve the end for which they were collected.

The following is the Treasurer's report of the present session, with the disbursements ordered by the Board.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

REPORT NO. 1.

The Twentieth Century Thank Offering projected by our last General Conference has not made the progress, for which we looked and prayed. Already a year of golden opportunity has passed, but the harvest has been comparatively small. We have had no figures to aid us in arriving at a correct estimate of the offerings already made, but it is evident they amount to less than $10,000. However, much seed has been sown, and it is to be hoped that next year will be a time of reaping.

We deprecate any movement that will prevent the concentration of our forces to this great work, and to the specific objects for which it was instituted. The General Conference of 1898, said: "The funds raised are to be applied to the following purposes. (1) The expenses of the canvass. (2) The needs of institutions belonging to the Church in each Annual Conference or group of Conferences. (3) The endowment of the theological department of Vanderbilt University."

In view of this action we recommend that no moneys be credited to this fund that do not go into these channels.

In order to make this great movement a success next year it is necessary that the preachers in charge feel their responsibility in the matter, and we urge them to dilligence. We recommend, 1st., That the 1st Sunday in January, or as near thereto as possible, be set apart to inaugurate this movement, where it has not already been projected, and that every member be personally solicited for at least the minimum contribution of $1. 2d. That the Presiding Elders give attention to the work in the quarterly confe ences, and give it special prominence in the district conferences.

REPORT NO. 2.

We have had no report from Vanderbilt University, but we understand it is maintaining its high standard of efficiency.

We are pleased to note the very gratifying condition of the Conference College, which has exceeded the expectations of its most ardent friends. It is located in the center of a great and growing population, within easy reach of all parts of the Conference. We have a competent corps of 7 teachers, who look after the spiritual needs of the 173 students, with as much care as they do after their mental training. The President reports that the income of the school from tuition has very largely increased over last year. This is as it should be. Christian education is worth paying for, and we urge our people to patronize our own schools even if the money cost be greater.

At Athens our property has been greatly improved and beautified. This time honored institution has never done better work and deserves a much larger patronage than it has at present.

Though the Tuscaloosa Female College does not belong to us as yet, it stands for Methodist, as well as Christian education, and is making substantial improvements in both buildings and work, with every year.

The work done at Paine Institute and Lane College commends itself, and should have our moral and material support.

We are not only interested in our own schools, but we feel that great advantage can be gained for the cause of Christ by having Christian teachers in the schools that do not belong to the Church. We remind the Conference that the General Board of Education has established a Teacher's Bureau, through the agency of which, any community can secure Christian teachers.

We think it would increase the interest in the Twentieth Century Thank Offering, to adopt at this time a basis of distribution of the funds that shall be raised. We therefore suggest the following:

1. Special direction may be given to any contribution, either to Vanderbilt University, or to either of the Conference Colleges, or to Tuscaloosa Female College.

2. Of the amounts contributed without special direction, 20 per cent. of our available part shall be paid to Athens Female College, until its debt be liquidated. The same sum paid to Athens College shall be paid to Tuscaloosa Female College, provided, its trustees shall raise the balance of its indebtedness, and convey it to the North Alabama Conference. The balance to be paid to the North Alabama Conference College.

We have appointed F. W. Brandon, treasurer of this fund.

We have received on the educational assessment, $2,035.07, which we have distributed as follows:

Printing Minutes	$ 65 00
General Board of Education	212 07
Paine Institute	159 00
Athens Female College	832 00
North Alabama Conference College	832 00

We recommend the following assessments:

To the faculty of the North Alabama Conference College	$1,500 00
To Athens Female College, to be applied to the liquidation of the debt	1,500 00
For the General Board of Education	450 00
For Paine Institute	100 00

We recommend the following appointments:

F. W. Brandon, Agent North Alabama Conference College, and Treasurer Twentieth Century Thank Offering.

E. M. Glenn, President North Alabama Conference College.

I. C. Jenkins, Professor North Alabama Conference College.

W. F. Melton, President Tuscaloosa Female College.

J. T. Lane, J. F. Clarke, H. P. Self and W. E. Aldridge students in the North Alabama Conference College.

C. M. HENSLEY, President. GEORGE W. READ, Secretary.

This report was amended by recommending the appointment of S. M. Hosmer, President of the Southern University, and R. T. Tyler a student in the same institution.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

We are pleased to report, that this great department of our church work has made a decided improvement over the record of last year.

We believe we are justified in saying that more new schools have been organized during the past conference year than ever before during the same period.

In all departments of this work the cause seems to be taking on new life. We believe the older members of the Church are realizing their duty and responsibility more now than ever before, and instead of sending the children, go with them, thus setting an example which is worth much to their religious development.

Again, we believe the pastors are giving more attention to the Sabbath School than formerly, realizing more fully that this splendid training school of the Church is a fruitful field for the ingathering into the Church of God of precious and immortal souls.

The continued improvement of our own church literature is a source of gratification, and we feel safe in saying that it compares favorably with that of any other denomination.

The Sunday School editors seem to be alive to the great work that has been committed to their care, and are always on the alert to improve the periodicals, whenever it is possible

Marked improvement has been made in our mag zine. Every phrase of the lesson is fully treated, doctrinal, practical and illustrative, besides the children's department. It is one of the best commentaries and it should certainly be in the hands of every superintendent and teacher.

We also commend the Children's Visitor as a paper especially adapted for our younger people. It is bright, pure and helpful, and should be largely circulated in every Sunday school.

The Board has assisted sixty-one needy schools with literature, and has denied none. It is our aim to broaden this work and to encourage the organization of new schools by supplying the literature until they are self sustaining. Our experience has been most satisfactory along this line. Where a school has been assisted for a snort time it soon becomes self sustaining.

We hope the preachers of the Conference will not hesitate to call upon the Board for assistance at points where schools are not able to provide their own literature.

We are pleased to report the increase in Children's Day collections, being seventy per cent. increase over last year. This is very gratifying to your Board, and we trust the day is not far distant when every charge will observe the day with appropriate services, and take the collection.

Upon application to the Secretary and Treasurer, programs will be furnished free of charge to those who will take the collection.

We again beg to ask the Presiding Elders to assist in creating more interest in the work in their districts, by giving prominence to the cause at their district conferences. We would recommend that one day be given wholly to this work. By corresponding with the officers of the Board assistance will be given in the way of programs, speakers, etc.

We have decided to hold our next convention at Decatur, Alabama, July 17, 1900, and trust that we may have the co-operation of all of our people.

We beg to call the attention of the Presiding Elders to a clause in our report of last year, adopted by the Conference, relating to representation, requesting that one delegate and one alternate be elected at the first quarterly conference from each pastoral charge, who shall be a delegate to said convention, and that the Presiding Elders report promptly the names of such delegates and alternate to the President of the Board.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS.

We your Committee, after careful inquiry as to each case submitted to us, and after prayerful consideration, beg leave to submit the following report:

1. That the Rev. T. K. Tierce be continued in the supernumerary list.

2. That the following named brethren be placed on the superannuated roll, viz:

J. N. Dupree, W. C. Hearn, C. Godby, Wilson Williams, G. J. Mason, J. S. Marks, J. G. Walker, J. S. Davis, E. F. S. Roberts, R. J. Wilson, M. E. Johnston, P. P. Riley, R. A. Speer, W. A. Montgomery, E. W. Jones, P. K. Brindley, Rufus Nicholson, W. T. Pattillo, F. K. Hewlitt and J. H. Leslie.

We recommend that Z. A. Parker and M. E. Butt be placed on the superannuated roll.

We recommend that W. L. Hendricks be granted the supernumerary relation.

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. Dormon, Secretary. Z. A. DOWLING, Chairman.

BIBLE CAUSE.

The circulation of the Scriptures is absolutely essential in all our own work, both at home and in the foreign fields. We recognize the American Bible Society as being the agency that fully meets all our requirements and is, itself, a great missionary society. The work of this Society has been greatly hindered by lack of funds, but we are happy to learn that the revenue is increasing, thus making the work much more effective.

When we remember that this Society is prepared to make ten thousand copies of God's word daily; that one million copies are being circulated annually; that it keeps Bible colporters in nearly all the mission fields; that the low price of 15 cents will put a Bible in the hands of a heathen child; and that ten million copies are now needed to supply the urgent demand, we see a cause that surely appeals to ever lover of God's Kingdom. We are informed that 5,000 copies of the Scriptures were furnished our own Church, in Cuba last year, with the work still going on. The new fields now open, give us an opportunity to make this Society useful as it has scarcely been before.

We are glad to note that 105 charges have paid to this cause this year, against 83 last year, and that the amount collected is much above last year. Still we are doing little, compared with our responsibility, and many charges have paid nothing.

We insist that every pastor inform his people with regard to this work, and take his collection early in the year. In no case should this collection be made subordinate to the others ordered by the Church.

As this Society can no longer furnish colporters to canvass the country, we recommend that each pastor do the work of colporter for his own charge, and see that every family is supplied with a Bible. Dr. T. H. Law, Spartanburg, South Carolina, will gladly give all necessary information and furnish the supplies for this work.

Respectfully submitted,

S. R. LESTER, Secretary. R. M. ARCHIBALD, Chairman.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Your Committee on Epworth Leagues respectfully submit the following report:

We thank God for the success already realized in League work in our own Conference, as well as in other Conferences throughout our connection. There has been a steady growth in membership, and an increased efficiency in the League as a working force in the Church, which is gratifying.

The League during the past year has rendered valuable service to the Church in her missionary work, by the circulation of missionary literature and by aiding the pastors in securing their missionary assessments. Taking as their motto, "Christ for all," they have already under the direction of our Missionary Secretaries, put representatives in the foreign fields. Under the blessings of God we have abundant reason to hope that these are only the advance guard of an army of invasion, that shall soon plant the banner of the Prince of Peace in the ends of the earth.

Several pastors report that their Leagues have been especially helpful in their revival work. This is as it should be in every place. Let the Leagues of our Conference at once begin praying for a revival in every pastoral charge in the next Conference year.

Remembering that it is but seed time yet with the League, we receive these early sheaves with thanksgiving, and pray and hope for a harvest that shall "shake like Lebanon."

We have received the report of our General Secretary, who requests an expression of the sentiment of this Conference with reference to holding next year a General League Conference, for the Leagues of Southern Methodism. Your Committee recommends the holding of this Conference.

We are sorry that the prescribed Reading Course is so much neglected by the Leagues in our Conference, and urge our pastors and League officers to buy and read these excellent books, and give them the widest possible circulation. This is a work in which the pastor must lead, or in many places it will not be done.

The constantly increasing merit of the Epworth Era, calls for an increased circulation among our young people.

We recommend the adoption of the "Holston Plan" by the Leagues of the North Alabama Conference as soon as practicable.

W. R. HENDRIX, Secretary. J. D. ELLIS, Chairman.

ALABAMA METHODIST ORPHANAGE.

To the North Alabama Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Conference at Birmingham, Alabama:

Through its Executive Committee, the Board of Directors of the Alabama Methodist Orphanage submit to the Conference this report, concerning said Orphanage, to October 25. 1899, the day on which the Board of Directors held its last annual meeting.

The whole number of children admitted since the 5th day of September, 1890, the day on which the Orphanage was opened, is 234; three have died, one in 1893, one in 1894, and one in 1895, 95 have been withdrawn by their friends; 66 have been put in private homes procured for them; 5 have left without permission; 65 are now in the Orphanage, 40 girls and 25 boys. Of the 65 now in the Orphanage, 33 came from the North Alabama Conference territory, 20 girls and 13 boys, and 32 from the Alabama Conference territory, 20 girls and 12 boys. There has been but little sickness among the children during the year past, the physician's bills has been $29, only.

The Board of Directors re-elected Miss Sudie V. A. Hunt, matron, for the year beginning, October 25, 1899, and re-elected Miss Bessie Rencher, teacher. Our last report showed an indebtedness of about $1,120.86. We have received this year $4,560.58, and expended of this amount $4,204.74, have reduced our indebtedness $355.84, leaving a net indebtedness October 25, 1899, of $765.02. The amounts promised our Agents to be paid at the two Conferences, will, we hope materially reduce the indebtedness that Methodism should not allow to stand in any amount as a barrier to this Institution.

Dr. T. G. Slaughter by the request of the Agent of the Orphanage and the Executive Committee, traveled two or three months canvassing for the Orphanage, and as always with him, his labors showed good results.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your Committee on District Conference Records begs leave to report as follows:

The only adverse criticism the Committee makes against the Records of the District Conferences is that the Decatur and Jasper District Conference Records have no official roll of the members of the District Conference. With this exception we have found all the records faithfully and correctly kept. Several of the Records are models of methods and neatness. We congratulate the District Conference Secretaries upon their dilligence and faithfulness, and we rejoice that the records of the church are being kept with so much accuracy. It will greatly facilitate the work of our historians in the writing of our history in the future years.

E. H. HAWKINS, Secretary. M. N. MORRIS, Chairman.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

To the Bishop and members of the North Alabama Conference:

The Agents of our Publishing House at Nashville report to us that the business of the House has been greater the past year than formerly. We are much pleased that this is so; and, under all the circumstances and conditions which environ the House, we consider the fact stated quite remarkable.

But the question arises from year to year: Is our House doing the business it ought? Sustained as it is by a million and a half loyal Methodists, which means a Methodist population of at least three millions, with an official agency of thousands of itinerant and local preachers, it would seem that our great central Publishing House ought to do many fold more business than it does. And we are persuaded that were the aggressive energy which we see put forth by other publishers, set in operation by our Nashville Agents, the showing of business would be very largely increased. Let it not be forever a reproach to our people that they are not a reading people.

The revenue which the House reports comes very largely from the Sunday School and Epworth League publications. Our Sunday School literature is furnished us at much higher figures than similar publications from other denominational houses. Is there necessity for this? Yes: that the House may show a flourishing business. But if the house did a larger business in its other departments, it could afford to furnish us our Sunday School literature at more nearly the rates which other similar establishments give.

From out the Publishing House at Nashville, as out of a great heart, there goes forth a constant stream of fresh blood into the body of the Church. What we want to say is, let the pulse be quicker. Let the throb be stronger.

The Christian Advocate, our great central organ, has also been under review in your committee. We rejoice that it is so ably edited, and all its departments so thoroughly well sustained. We are proud of it, and commend it most heartily. It should be in the home of every Methodist preacher, of every official member, and in many other of our Methodist homes. If this were accomplished, the subscription list of the paper would be twenty times what it is. It is simply the fault of ourselves and our people that this grand publication of our church is not doing more successfully the great work it is capable of. Our criticism is not of the paper. Its editorial work and general make up is of the highest order.

Of the Alabama Christian Advocate we have much to say in commendation. We are gratified to note that editorially and mechanically the paper is an improvement on what we have had in past years. There might be, and ought to be better proof-reading. A critical eye might suggest changes and improvements here and there; but we have not viewed the paper in that light. We are pleased with it. We endorse it. Conservative, thoughtful and thorough in its editorial department, and safely conducted in its business, we are glad that we have such a publication.

But here again we may show figures which shame us. The more than 100,000 Methodists in Alabama ought to give the Alabama Christian Advocate more than 6,000 paying subscrtbers. Why not 20,000? We cannot blame the editor, nor the publisher. We must needs blame ourselves and our people. Brethren, let's be better agents for our papers the coming year than we have ever been.

Our Quarterly Review is a publication of which we have ever been justly proud, and never has it been more ably edited than of late years. Yet the agents inform us that the subscription list has declined during the past year. Let us hope that the coming year shall recover the loss, and make additional increase.

Concerning our Sunday School, Epworth League and Missionary publications we need not speak. Their praise is in all our churches and in nearly all our homes. In quality these have reached a high ideal. Let them have a circulation according to their merit, and great good will be accomplished.

Your committee would commend to Alabama Methodists the several books whose authors reside among and are of us. These books have merit within themselves to entitle them to a wide market. We also are gratified to see our House now issuing several new books which are receiving universal approbation. With an increase of energy at the centre of business, and with a large increase of zeal amongst ourselves, let us hope to see the good books above referred to placed in thousands of homes where now but little of such literature is found.

While Mormon emissaries are going from door to door and thrusting in their pernicious publications, and while Dowie literature is being received into Methodist homes, can we afford to be negligent? "Nature abhors a vacuum." Our Methodist homes should not furnish vacuums into which such reading matter may be placed.

Among all his many great works and enterprises Mr. Wesley did nothing which now reflects more credit upon his wisdom and godly zeal than the numerous and varied publications with which he supplied his people. In the early day all Methodist preachers were colporters and book agents. It will be a happy day for our people at large when we return to that order of things or an improvement upon it.

Your committee do not claim to be ensamples in these regards, but humbly desire to take unto themselves the exhortation they offer to others.

J. W. CARY, Secretary. JESSE WOOD, Chairman.

THE SABBATH.

We, your committee, beg leave to submit the following report:

That the Sabbath is a divine institution, and that it is the imperative duty of every man to observe it as a day of rest and worship, can only be emphasized by a restatement of former reports on this subject. The reasons for doing this are very obvious.

(1) That it is one of God's holy commandments, hence the rights of the Sabbath are incontrovertable.

(2) That the rest and religious privileges of the Sabbath are an absolute necessity. While we believe there is a growing consciousness among our people upon this subject, and that we have noted some things along this line very gratifying to us, still there is much to regret, and much for us to do, that the sancity of this holy day may be preserved and that the greatest and much needed good may be derived.

There are many who through greed for gain, and an unholy desire for social and sensual pleasures pay utter disregard to all the rights and privileges of this holy day. While we greatly deplore the fact, many of the great corporations and companies of the land heedlessly violate all Sabbath laws, we at the same time are painfully reminded of the fact, that many of our private citizens violate this law by doing ordinary business, and by seeking the gratification of their social and sensual desires. It is, therefore, the duty of every Christian and especially of Christian ministers to do all in their power to prevent all Sabbath desecration, and to cultivate a better conscience in this direction. We therefore recommend:

(1) That each pastor keep the subject of Sabbath observance prominently before his people.

(2) That Brothers J. F. Sturdivant, J. H. McCoy and J. B. Wadsworth be appointed delegates to the Alabama Sabbath Association.

(3) That we heartily join the Association in all its efforts to promote and to secure the proper observance of the Sabbath.

C. L. HERRING, Secretary. J. J. CROW, Chairman.

Memoirs.

JOHN B. GREGORY.

The Rev. John B. Gregory, D. D., a member of the North Alabama Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, died in the city of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, March 3, 1899. On the next day, after suitable burial services held in the First Methodist church. Birmingham, Alabama, in the presence of a goodly number of his brethren in the ministry, a concourse of other sorrowing friends, and his grief-stricken family, his body was committed to the ground in Oak Hill Cemetery.

John B. Gregory, was born in Pickens county, Alabama, September 12, 1853. On April 7, 1875, he led to the hymeneal altar Miss Sue Cain, and, there and then, they pledged their faith either to other, to live together after God's ordinance, in the holy estate of matrimony, so long as they both should live. Nine children was born to them, eight of whom are still living. Doctor Gregory was inducted into the Christian religion by a change of nature wrought through the renovating power of divine grace, and was received into the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Wesley Chapel, North Port Circuit, in the summer of 1873, under the ministry of Rev. James E. Andrews. In a few brief weeks, after the light and glory of the Lord had risen upon him, and his assumption of the sacred vows of Christianity for himself, he was licensed to preach at Union Chapel, North Port Circuit, North Alabama Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

At the session of the North Alabama Conference held in Talladega, Alabama, the latter part of November, 1873, and presided over by the Rev. Bishop Enoch M. Marvin, D. D., Brother Gregory was admitted into the conference on trial, in a class of eight. At the session of the North Alabama Conference in Birmingham, Alabama, in November, 1875, he was admitted into the conference in full connection, and elected to deacon's orders, and was ordained a deacon in the Church of God, by Bishop Marvin. At the session of the North Alabama Conference held at Oxford, Alabama, in December, 1880, he was elected to elder's orders, and was ordained an elder by Bishop H. N. McTyiere. Dr. Gregory was seven years in completing the course of study and reaching elder's orders, by reason of the physical infirmities under which he labored during those years.

At the Commencement exercises of the Southern University, at Greensboro, Ala., held in June, 1889, the Rev. John B. Gregory preached the Commencement Sermon. There and then the Trustees of that University conferred on him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity.

His first pastoral charge was Blue Mountain Mission in the Hillabee country, in the bounds of Talladega District. For 1875 he was in charge of the Socapatoy Circuit in the LaFayette District. For 1876 he was again appointed to the Socapatoy Circuit and he served it until in the summer, when he was seized by sickness, and gave up the work for the remainder of the year. For 1877 he was appointed to Sheffield Circuit and North River Mission, but on account of his impaired health he never took charge of the work. He lived that year on the Hawkins plantation, near Birmingham, and cultivated a part of that farm. He preached occasionally during the year. He assisted the preacher in charge of a camp meeting, which was held at Union Church not far from Village Falls. For 1878 he was in charge of Valley Head Circuit; for 1879, in charge of Ashville Circuit; for 1880, 1881, 1882, in charge of Birmingham Circuit; for 1883, in charge of Talladega Station; for 1884, 1885, in charge of Athens Station; for 1886, in charge of Huntsville District; for 1887, in charge of Florence Station; for 1888, 1889, in charge of Wesley Chapel; for 1890, in charge of Huntsville Station; for 1891, superannuated; for 1892, 1893, in charge of St. John; for four years, beginning with 1894, in charge of Gadsden Station; for 1898, in charge of Decatur Station; for 1899, till his death in charge of Tuscaloosa District.

Doctor Gregory was modest, quiet and unpretentious. He had his opinions, judgments, and convictions, and held them tenaciously, but never thrust them officiously upon the notice of others. He was a man of prayer and piety, but never made any boast on the subject. He was, at times rather gloomy and somewhat despondent, but always pleasant and companionable. He was never known to give place to trifling or levity. His thought was pure, and his language chaste. He was not very impulsive, nor very sentimental. He was no sycophant, and he never fawned. He never sought place or powder, but accepted with fidelity whatever fell to his lot, and met with efficiency whatever was required of him; and expected reward according to labor done and services rendered. He was preeminently free from malice, guile, and hypocrisy. He maintained a good name throughout the entire circle of his days; lived and died without reproach.

No man ever excelled him in his devotion to his household. He cherished his own life for the sake of his wife and children. With greatest vigilance, with unremitting toil, with tenderest consideration, he watched the interests and attended to the wants, comfort, and safety of his children. He governed his house. God's blessing be on his widow and his fatherless children.

He was an able minister of the gospel. As a preacher he was much above an average, having studied the Bible and general literature, and having made proficiency therein. He preached finished sermons. He presented his themes in a way to please and profit his auditors. While he had but little imagination, and while he seldom attempted a parade of imagery, he was rather inclined to be ornate. In his sermons he often lingered at points to cluster about them as many ornate sentences as possible. The effort at ornate grouping sometimes extended the length of his sermons to the weariness of the impatient.

In the administration of the affairs of the Church he was steady and conservative. He never attempted the sensational regime in the prosecution of church work. He never consulted the erratic, nor allied himself with the fanatical, but depended upon established order, and divinely appointed methods. He preferred the growth characteristic of the oak to that characteristic of the mushroom. Possibly, the very best year's work of his entire ministry was the one on the Decatur Station. At Decatur he succeeded in the enterprise of building a new house of worship.

The last ecclesiastical appointment he received was Presiding Elder of the Tuscaloosa District. He entered upon that work with cheerfulness and hope, but three short months ended his ministerial career. From the District Parsonage in Tuscaloosa his spirit went to its reward in the skies where the upper choirs meet and sing the song of the Lamb which redeemed and glorified the saints.

LEVI C. SIMS.

Rev. L. C. Sims was born in Clay county, Ala., May 12, 1856, and died August 8, 1899.

It is painful, yet very pleasant, to dig into the past of a dead friend and find with every deed unearthed gems of kindness and love that illuminate his life and speak more forcefully than volumes of eulogies, of a life devoted to self sacrifice and labors for mankind.

In the death of Brother Sims we have lost a friend and brother, but heaven has gained a noble accession. "He died as he had lived, and the world is made better by his having lived in it."

He was converted at the early age of fourteen years, and would have joined the M. E. Church, South, but for the objections of his father who, being a staunch Northern Methodist, would not agree for the young convert to join any but the M. E. Church. So in compliance of his father's wishes, he joined that church while attending school at the Andrews Institute. But he was never satisfied until in after years, when he transferred his membership to the M. E. Church, South. Even then he did not find peace, for that all powerful mentor, "the conscience," was a work. God needed other harvesters, "for the grain was ripe and the reapers few," so he was chosen and called to the ministry.

He knew the hardships and responsibilities of such a work; he also knew that "by faith all things are made possible to him that believeth."

His first pastoral charge was the Island Creek Circuit, which he supplied one year. The next, Fabius Circuit, one year; the third, Columbus City Circuit, which he supplied for three years. From there he was sent to Summit Circuit, for two years. In November, 1894, he was admitted on trial into the North Alabama Conference, and was returned to Summit for 1895. In 1896 and 1897 he served the Cleveland Circuit; 1898-99 the South Hill Circuit, from which charge his weary soul took its flight.

Brother Sims was methodical and painstaking, looking after the minutest details with an ardor born of his love for the work in which he was engaged.

In his last sickness he often talked with his wife about dying, and said he was ready and willing to die. His fancy did not invest death with the horrors that many are wont to imagine. But he spoke of it as if it were a pleasant journey, and he was anxious to depart.

His death was very sudden. He had just returned from church, and was engaged in a conversation with Brother Tyler, of Albertville, when he complained of a dizzy feeling in his head. He walked across the room, composed himself on the bed and expired.

He passed into the dark valley without a tremor. The cruelty of the grave, or the uncertainty of the beyond troubled not his peaceful soul, for guided by the lamp of faith, he entered the land of promise with the smile of a conqueror upon his lips.

LEMUEL R. ALLISON.

According to the best information we have been able to obtain, Lemuel Riley Allison was born somewhere in the State of Georgia, September 6, 1864. We do not know at what age he was converted and received into the Church, nor do we know when, where or by whom he was licensed to preach and ordained deacon and elder. But we learn that he was licensed when quite young; that he first joined the North Georgia Conference, and that, at the end of his first year, he was transferred to the South Georgia Conference, in which he continued to labor until the end of the year 1898, when he was transferred to this Conference, and appointed by Bishop Key to the Sylacauga and Fayetteville charge on which he labored most faithfully and acceptably until toward the latter part of June, when he took sick, and on the 11th of July, fell on sleep and entered into rest. Thus was he cut off in the middle of his days, in the very prime of life, when he seemed to be just entering upon the most useful part of his career. He was laying the foundation for great usefulness on his last charge. Such were his social qualities, combined with his Christlike spirit, that he had ingratiated himself with all classes of the people, in the Church and out of it—even some of the most wicked men were being drawn towards him. He was a good preacher; his sermons were instructive and edifiing. He was a good pastor. He visited not only his own members, but members of all churches and those who were not members of any church, and especially did he hunt up the poor and encourage them to attend church and Sunday School.

Having been a member of our Conference only a few months, we had not had time and opportunity to fully know and appreciate him; but the very favorable impression he had made upon the people of his charge gives assurance that he would soon have become an esteemed member of our body.

Brother Allison was twice married. His first wife was Miss Aurelia Domingos, of Cuthbert, Ga., whose companionship he was allowed to enjoy only about a year and a half, when she was called home, leaving to his care a sweet little girl.

His second wife was Miss Lelia Parker, of Talbot county, Ga. To them were born three children, the care and responsibility of rearing whom now devolves upon the widowed mother. The people of Sylacauga speak in terms of highest praise of Sister Allison, representing her as being eminently fitted for the delicate and difficult relation and work of an itinerant preacher's wife. May He who is "the Judge of the widow and the Father of the fatherless" be indeed such to this widow and these fatherless ones.

ISAAC D. MASON.

WHEREAS, Since the last session of our Conference, our dear brother, Isaac D. Mason, of Columbiana, Ala., an alternate lay delegate to this Conference, and the treasurer of our Conference Board of Church Extension, has been called away from the Church militant to the Church triumphant; therefore,

Resolved. 1. That in the death of Brother Mason, we have lost one of our best and most efficient laymen;

2. That, while we bow in humble submission to the dispensation of Divine Providence by which he has been removed hence, we greatly deplore our loss and sadly miss his accustomed presence among us;

3. That we most sincerely sympathize with his bereaved family and do devoutly pray that the God of all grace may sustain and comfort them in this their great affliction.
